

TUS Compendium Launch Agenda

Compendium of Approaches to Integrating Digital Competencies into the Curriculum

Wednesday, October 7th, 11:00am - 12:45pm

Location: B09, Athlone Campus and Online

Time	Event Title and Speaker(s)
11:00am	Introduction Dr Nuala Harding , Head of Centre for Pedagogical Innovation and Development
11:05am	Launch of the Compendium Professor Vincent Cunnane, President, Technological University of the Shannon (TUS)
11:15am	Keynote address Sheila MacNeill, a celebrated higher education consultant, on digital transformation and teaching innovation. Title: Digital competencies: the “dark matter” that holds our curriculum together
11:45am	Compendium case studies 1. Towards a better engagement for Flexible Learning students using Augmented and Virtual Reality, Brendan Dolan 2. Improving Access to Higher Education through Digital Induction Strategies, Anna Murphy 3. Using Accessible Virtual Reality for Interdisciplinary Teaching, Learning and Collaboration, Dr Martina Cleary 4. Measuring the effectiveness of a Classroom Response System in craft apprenticeship education, Michael Murphy
12:20pm	Mr Colin Lowry, Senior Manager, Teaching and Learning, Enhancement and Digital Innovation, Higher Education Authority
12:30pm	Closing remarks Ms Frances O’Connell, Vice President Student Education and Experience
12:40pm	Close Dr Trevor Prendergast, Head of Department of Accounting and Business Computing
12:45pm	Light Lunch

Register Below

