CPID Lunch and Learn Sessions

Tues February 27 1-2 pm	Teaching tips for those new to teaching in TUS. Join us for this session where we will provide you with some top tips for teaching in higher education, signpost some excellent teaching resources, and provide you with an opportunity for discussion and connection with peers new to teaching in TUS.	Dr Catherine-Ann O’Connell & Dr Geraldine McDermott
Thurs March 14 1-2 pm	Using SWAY to create interactive learning resources. This session will introduce you to Sway. With Sway you can create interactive reports, presentations, personal stories, and more. You provide the content, such as text, images, videos, and embedded items, and Sway does the rest, making sure that your finished layout looks professional.	Sarah O’Toole & Patrick Fitzgerald
Tues April 09 1-2 pm	Academic Integrity and Artificial Intelligence. In this session, we will discuss the impact of AI on assessments, looking at what might need to be done to manage its use in this area. Artificial intelligence (AI) is often seen as a disruptive force within the education sector. AI can impact completion of assessment tasks, with decisions needed as the ways in which AI can be used in a task or not.	Catherine O’Donoghue & Dr Geraldine McDermott
Thurs April 25 1-2 pm	UDL for beginners: Plus-One Approach- making one small change to practice for inclusion. The aim of this session is to showcase how Universal Design principles can be adapted to teaching in higher education and how it can be implemented in learning, teaching and assessment. The Plus-one approach is how UDL (Universal Design for Learning) can be adapted using one small change. This is also practice-sharing session where colleagues can present successful Plus-One adaptations.	Patrick Fitzgerald & Dr Catherine-Ann O’Connell
Tues May 07 1-2 pm	Using ScreenPal for Creating Digital Resources. This online session will provide you with some top tips for editing and enhancing instructional screencasts for students using ScreenPal. Participants should be familiar with ScreenPal and have a short video prepared for editing before joining this session.	Patrick Fitzgerald & Aoife Walsh
Thurs May 30 1-2 pm	Embedding Education for Sustainable Development in the Curriculum (ESD) - Best practice examples from within TUS. During this session, colleagues who have recently finished CPID’s Certificate in Embedding Education for Sustainable Development in the Curriculum will have the opportunity to demonstrate how they have incorporated or plan to incorporate ESD into their modules.	Dr Noelle O’Connor & Dr Nuala Harding
