

Schedule for TUS Midlands Green Symposium

Thursday 6 March 2025 from 9.30am to 12.30

Location: B55

- | | |
|---------|--|
| 9.30am | Welcome Address from TUS Green Campus Executive

Dr. Gary Stack, Chair Green Campus Committee TUS Athlone Campus |
| 9.40am | “Embedding Education for Sustainable Development in TUS”

Dr Noëlle O'Connor, Senior Lecturer, Researcher and Educational Developer, TUS, Sean Connell, Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Business and Hospitality, TUS and Nicola Ryan, Lecturer, Faculty of Business and Hospitality, TUS |
| 10.00am | Martina Hourigan and Charlene Hurley, Cycle Up |
| 10.10am | Launch TUS digital badge “An Introduction to Sustainable Living” sponsored by NTUTORR
Dr. Anne Marie O’Brien, Centre for Pedagogical Innovation and Development (CPID) and Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences and Biotechnology, TUS, Clara Keevey, Instructional Designer, Centre for Pedagogical Innovation and Development (CPID) |
| 10.30am | Duncan Stewart, Environmentalist, Architect and Media Personality

“Inspiring Sustainable Living in our Communities” |
| 11am | Coffee Break

TUS Canteen (near Library) |

- 11.30am “The intersections between SRHR and climate change: A case study of Chimanimani and Chipinge in Zimbabwe”

Nomalanga Dube, Programme Manager based in Zimbabwe and member of the GOAL NextGen Youth Programme (Zoom)
- 11.50 “Ethics and sustainability of University investments”

Jo Campling, Campaign Manager, SOS UK (Zoom)
- 12.10 Introduction to Sustainable Development Research Institute (SDRI), TUS
Dr. Mercedes Alonso Gómes, Director of SDRI, TUS (Zoom)
- 12.25 Concluding remarks Dr. Maeve O’Reilly, Vice-Chair Green Campus Committee
TUS Athlone Campus and announcement of prize winners