

SEMESTER NEWSLETTER

We're delighted to introduce the TUS Research Newsletter — Published three times a year; it is designed to inform, inspire, and support you on your research journey.

Each edition will bring you insightful educational pieces, updates on current research projects, funding opportunities and a look back at past achievements. Whether you're just starting out or are an experienced researcher, we want this newsletter to be a valuable tool to help you grow and succeed.

How the Research Office Can Support You

At the TUS Research Office, we know that research can be both exciting and challenging. That's why we're here — to guide, support, and connect you with the resources you need to bring your research to the next level.

Here are just a few ways we can help:

- Identifying funding opportunities to support your research.
- Helping you to develop and review research proposals.
- Providing TUS endorsement for research applications.
- Managing research time release and internal scholarships.
- Connecting you with national and international research partners.
- Organising training for career development and research ethics.

No matter what stage you're at in your research, we're here for you, If you have questions, need support, or wish to join our TUS research community mailing list please don't hesitate to reach out to us using our dedicated contact form.
